

Haciendas recuperadas

Fighting against ultra-liberalism, workers occupy their company and work on a self-managed scheme

After the financial crash of 2001, Argentina has created an unprecedented phenomenon. The "haciendas recuperadas" ("Recovered Companies") ie self-managed by workers themselves to face the risk of closure, is an experience that can be read not only in a purely economic point of view but also from social and political.

Project author or developer:
workers

Where:
AR / Argentina / Autonomous City of Buenos Aires

Website:
www.buenosaires.gob.ar/areas/com_social/emp_recup/lista_empresas/

