

The Free Knowledge Institute (FKI) is a non-profit organisation that fosters the free exchange of knowledge in all areas of society. Inspired by the Free Software movement, the FKI promotes freedom of use, modification, copying and distribution of knowledge in four different but highly related fields: education, technology, culture and science.

Project author or developer:
The Free Knowledge Institute

Where:
BE / Belgique / Bruxelles

Website:
freeknowledge.eu

