

Permaculture Education Center

Providing training in Permaculture while promoting and demonstrating sustainable living tech

The mission of the Permaculture Education Center is to teach, consult, demonstrate, and help spread the word about Permaculture worldwide. The Permaculture Education Center is a not-for-profit venture, created by some of the leading Permaculture teachers in North America. We offer the official 72-hour online Permaculture Design Certificate (PDC) course and the Introduction to Permaculture Course, plus advice and tutoring from some of the world's top professional Permaculture designers and teachers. Permaculture is the Science of Sustainability. Permaculture Demonstration site and Education Center in Asheville, coming soon to Nashville. Directors: Alan Enzo Jessica Enzo Art Freeman Brian Dugas

Project author or developer:
Permaculture Education Center

Where:
US / United States / Buncombe

Website:
www.PermacultureEducation.com

