

Tampa Bay Time

TBT is a time bank. Individual & organizational members help other members, earning TBT Hours to spend for help they need

Tampa Bay Time is a service exchange, also known as a time bank, a community of people who collectively build a more caring, just and sustainable bioregional economy. By connecting unmet needs with untapped resources, Tampa Bay Time complements the mainstream economy. Members earn credits by helping other members and use their credits to secure help that they themselves need. Tampa Bay Time is inclusive and egalitarian. All are welcome and all activities are valued equally.
