The diagram illustrates the interconnected domains of 'Geographies of change'. It features a horizontal row of 12 circles. The first two circles are filled (red and yellow), while the others are empty. Above the circles are labels: 'Cultural System' (above the red circle), 'Communication' (above the yellow circle), 'Education' (above the 3rd circle), 'Health' (above the 6th circle), 'Food' (above the 7th circle), and 'Agents of changes' (above the 8th circle). Below the circles are labels: 'Art' (below the red circle), 'Environment' (below the 3rd circle), 'Economics' (below the 4th circle), 'Politics' (below the 5th circle), 'Urban Development' (below the 6th circle), and 'Covid' (below the 8th circle). The circles are connected by a network of lines, with a central cluster of circles connected to the others. In the bottom right corner, the logo for 'cittadellarte FONDAZIONE PISTOLETTO' is visible.
