The diagram illustrates the interconnected domains of 'Geographies of change'. It features a horizontal row of 12 circles. The first circle is red and labeled 'Art'. The second circle is yellow and labeled 'Environment'. The remaining ten circles are white with black outlines. Above the circles, labels are grouped: 'Cultural System' (above Art and Environment), 'Communication' (above Environment and the first white circle), 'Education' (above the second white circle), 'Health' (above the third white circle), 'Food' (above the fourth white circle), and 'Agents of changes' (above the fifth and sixth white circles). Below the circles, labels are grouped: 'Urban Development' (below the third and fourth white circles) and 'Covid' (below the fifth and sixth white circles). At the bottom left is the 'Geographies of change' logo, and at the bottom right is the 'cittadellarte FONDAZIONE PISTOLETTO' logo.
