

Manenti farm/natural fertility of land

Guaranty quality and productivity

Born in 1981, Azienda Agricola Manenti (located in Sostegno near Biella) has the aim to produce vegetables without agricultural chemicals. They elaborate on natural fertility of land and on socio-economics aspects of producing food in a consumerist and globalize world. In the matter of this vision, they develop an innovative way of plantation related to safeguard natural factor (forests, wild lands, ..). The farm produce and sell seasonal vegetables directly to the consumer and it's possible to pick them up in Fondazione Pistoletto. The company also organize some course of 3/4 days and family tour of the farm. Via Parrocchiale 713868 Sostegno - BITel/Fax: (+39) 015 762722e-mail: info@aziendagricolamanenti.it
