The School of Kyiv - Kyiv Biennial 2015 presents a new format of an art biennial integrating exhibitions and arenas of public reflection. Works of more than 100 international and Ukrainian artists will be shown in an open display structure, including six Schools, where artists and intellectuals from around the world will meet and work with the public in collaborative forums. Departing from the current situation in Ukraine, the “The School of Kyiv” will be addressing burning issues relevant for the citizens of Ukraine, Europe and beyond as well as imagining egalitarian and alternative futures; and the counter-propositions of art. The School of Kyiv is an independent project curated by Hedwing Saxenhiber and Georg Schollhammer, and conceived and organized together with the Visual Culture Research Center (Kyiv). Departments of “The School of Kyiv” will open in a series of institutions across Europe as an integral part of the project. The School of Kyiv - Kyiv Biennial 2015 takes place from September 8 to November 1, 2015.
