

Project author or developer:
Mario Pieroni and Dora Stiefelmeier

Where:
IT / Italia / Città Metropolitana di Roma

Website:
www.radioartemobile.it/

RAM radioartemobile, founded by Mario Pieroni and Dora Stiefelmeier in 2003, is a platform for contemporary art based in Rome, dedicated to sound research and exhibitive activity which aims towards the creation of an international network.

RAM sets up exhibitions and projects in collaboration with both public and private spaces all over the world, juxtaposing visual and sound art.

In 2004, in the Rome office, RAM founded SAM, SoundArtMuseum, a permanent archive of SoundArt works open to the public and available on-line.

RAM LIVE is RAM's web radio connoted as a space for sound art with international resonance with the interdisciplinary aims of creating a network and of experimentation. RAM LIVE's programming is streamed live 24 hours a day at <http://live.radioartemobile.it>

